

ASCP Announces 2026 Annual Conference: “Supply Chain to Responsible Chain: AI Optimism 2026”

Association of Supply Chain Professionals (ASCP) is pleased to announce its flagship Annual India Supply Chain 2026 Conference under the theme “Supply Chain to Responsible Chain: AI Optimism 2026”.

This exclusive, invitation-only gathering will take place on September 11, 2026 at Taj Santa Cruz, Mumbai. It will bring together senior executives, policymakers, and thought leaders from India and Japan to explore how AI can power the next evolution of responsible, resilient, and future-ready supply chains.

Building on ASCP’s transformative “Supply Chain to Responsible Chain” vision since 2020, the 2026 edition focuses on AI Optimism, leveraging Artificial Intelligence, automation, and data intelligence responsibly across key supply chain areas. Key discussion topics include:

- Digital Transformation (DX) & Warehouse Automation
- Semiconductor Supply Chains
- EV Battery Logistics & Cold Chain Modernisation
- Circular Economy & Circularity initiatives
- Japan-India collaboration opportunities under Gati Shakti and National Logistics Policy

The one-day program features visionary keynotes, executive panels, Japanese best practices, and strategic roundtables aimed at turning optimism into concrete partnerships and actionable roadmaps.

ASCP is pleased to announce and truly honoured to have the continued support of JALoT (Japan Association for Logistics and Transport / 日本物流団体連合会) as the exclusive Supporting Partner for the 2026 Annual Conference.

Anshuman Neil Basu, Honorary Secretary General, Association of Supply Chain Professionals.

About ASCP

India’s first home-grown association for supply chain & logistics professionals, registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. ASCP drives professional excellence, policy initiatives, and industry-academia-government collaboration for world-class responsible supply chains.

Participation is strictly by invitation due to limited seats. Interested leaders may request an invitation via the official ASCP portal or secretariat.
